

Recreational

Encouraging children to like tennis while learning basic skills and playing the sport.

Multiple classes are offered in a week, but players only need to commit to a minimum of one.

Developmental

Developing a passion for the sport while teaching the fundamentals necessary for competition. Requires a commitment to more training hours and tournaments, as well as Developmental Director's approval.

Performance

Helping players maximize their potential and performance through intensive, integrated training.

Requires Performance Director's approval.

